

TAFT WILL HEAR TALK CONCERNING MURPHY

Cincinnati Publisher to Be on Hand When National League Determines What to Do With Chicago Man—Uncommunicative as to Procedure.

New York, February 18.—Charles P. Taft, the Cincinnati publisher, whose money furnished the National League its pet nuisance—Charles Webb Murphy, of Chicago, who will be on hand at Cincinnati Saturday for the court-martial of his volatile protégé, Mr. Taft's appearance in this city today occasioned a great deal of speculation as to some new and concealed move against the man who has been ordered to leave the league without the aid of organized baseball.

The fact that Secretary John A. Heydler, of the National League, quietly slipped out of town a short time after Mr. Taft's arrival gave some color to the rumor that Murphy's backer was here to investigate the Murphy scandal. Mr. Taft declared positively that his visit had nothing to do with baseball.

"I know nothing of this controversy between Mr. Murphy and the other club presidents," said Mr. Taft to-night. "It is true that you have assured Governor Johnson and Ben Johnston that you would stand with organized baseball in its proceeding against the Cub pitcher."

"I have absolutely nothing to say," Mr. Taft replied.

At the meeting in Cincinnati Saturday was next asked. "In all probability I shall be there in my present position," he said. "By the end of the week, however, I will not further discuss the situation. I have absolutely nothing further to say."

And Mr. Taft was as good as his word. Taft would not have moved him apparently.

At National League headquarters it was announced that Secretary John A. Heydler had gone to Philadelphia to confer with Governor Tener. This was the first stage of the journey to Cincinnati. John took with him a rather mysterious leather bag. This was said to contain certain papers that Attorney Toole will use against Murphy when charges are preferred. "Keystone King" will make the journey to Gary

Annapolis, Md., February 18.—Washington and Lee, after playing such a classy bit of basketball in the South, hit a snag when the Virginia five met the Middletown, and were vanquished to the tune of 10 to 18. Probably the prettiest individual bit of work of the game was that of Miles, of the visiting team, who shot a beautiful goal from the court, passing the ball more than half the length of the court to the basket. The line-up:

Washington and Lee
Navy Position and Lee
Adams.....right forward.....Baer
McReavy.....center.....Miles
Wilkes.....left guard.....Young
Wittie.....right guard.....Young
Substitutions—Navy, Overach for Wittie; Washington and Lee, Ross for Young, Goals from court—Navy, Smith (6), Adams (4), McReavy (4); Washington and Lee, Baer (2), Miles (2), Lyle (1), Young (1). Goals from foul—Navy, Smith, six in fourteen attempts; Washington and Lee, Miles, four in eight attempts. Referee, Mr. Hughes, twenty minutes each.

WRESTLING FANS ARE SURE TO SEE BANGUP MATCHES

Wrestling is sure to occupy a higher place in the affections of local sport fans after Friday night, when a card of the highest possible character will be presented for the approval of the fans. Olsen, counted one of the best and best wrestlers in the game, will meet Sendeles, another heavy weight. The winner of this bout will have a chance to meet Dr. Roller, the clearest wrestler of all times.

Both Olsen and Sendeles are anxious for a chance at the doctor. They have been in the ring together in the past, but at that time, Olsen was a very busy man. He has his time pretty well taken up in exhibition matches, but since the exhibition championship battles, he has been loath to take a chance at losing.

Either Olsen or Sendeles is of sufficient calibre to give the doctor a scare. Both believe that they can win from him, and neither will stop at anything in an attempt to gain the opportunity to meet the man who is the stepping stone to the world's heavyweight championship.

In addition to the heavyweight go, Joe Turner, champion middleweight of the world, will meet Tom Duchesne—his right hand man, champion middleweight of France. This is a big championship bout of the card. Whoever holds his belt as winner over the best that could be offered in Paris. Joe Turner holds his belt as the best in this country. The result will be a classic on the mat.

Women are to be admitted free. All tickets are comparable with the purchase of a ticket is entitled to an additional coupon if he expects to bring along a member of the fair sex.

NATIONAL GAMES FOR HOMEWOOD

A. A. U. Asked to Hold Amateur Track Championship at Johns Hopkins.

New York, February 18.—A request that this year's National Amateur Athletic Union track and field outdoor championships be held on the campus of Johns Hopkins University during the week of September 7 was received by the A. A. U. from the National committee that has the games in mind.

The Southern body desires to have the championship held in connection with the National Star Spangled Banner centennial.

Princeton, N. J., February 18.—In a game marked by excess of rough play on both sides, the "Tiger" ran away with the University of Pennsylvania basketball aggregation here to-night. The score was 22 to 18. Click was the individual star for Princeton. Throughout the first half, while headed by Princeton, the two teams played evenly. The Tigers were handicapped by the absence of three varsity men, Frankman, Ferre and Gull. The greater part of the scoring on both sides was from fouls.

Among those mentioned for the position of head coach are Harry K. Varner, T. Hardy Todd and J. M. Wood. Varner acted as assistant coach of the varsity eleven last fall. He is one of the best known football players in the State. He began his gridiron career at the Virginia Polytechnic Institute, where he won his S. S. degree. Coming to Virginia he found no trouble in making the varsity eleven his first year, and for three seasons in succession held a place at tackle. He was especially strong on the defensive, and had few equals in his position in the entire South.

Todd was one of the best backfield men ever at Virginia. He was captain of the Virginia track team in 1912—the first instance on record at Virginia where one man was honored with leadership in two branches of sport the same year. He alternated at quarterback and halfback during his four years on the varsity eleven, and figured prominently in nearly every game in which he participated. In his last two years in college he was elected the unanimous choice of critics for a place on the mythical All-Southern eleven.

Joe Wood was Virginia's plucky center for three years. He succeeded to the captaincy of the Virginia team in the fall of 1911, after the elopement of Right End Bowen. He is sturdy athlete, as strong as an ox—one of the best tacklers ever at the university. There was no back too big for him to stop on a head-on tackle. He was reliable in passing the ball, and excelled in active line ground covering, both on the attack and defense. He possesses a splendid knowledge of the gridiron game. He is at present an instructor at the Episcopal High School, and also coach of the football team of that institution.

Manager Carter, of the Richmond College track team, has nearly completed his work of registering the entrants for the Blues-College indoor game the Saturday afternoon will have the complete list ready for publication probably to-day. While knowing that a number of stars would compete, he was not quite ready for the number of men expected, therefore the delay. Probably the greatest crowd in the history of track meets in Hittchmond will attend.

Metropolitans of Baltimore A 2, 4, 7
Palace, No. 2.....B 3, 5, 8
Newports.....C 4, 7, 9
Sibley Shores.....D 5, 8, 9

To-Day's Leaders.
Noldes, No. 2.....2,284
Remington, No. 11.....2,285
Florists.....2,123
Newports, No. 1.....2,104

Flinn, of Noldes' No. 2, has the honor of making the first strike in the first game rolled in the intercity bowling tournament, begun yesterday on the Palace alleys. A great crowd witnessed the opening, and greater crowds are predicted as the week grows older. Local pin knights held the ways yesterday, but to-day there will be an influx of foreign talent.

The most notable of the visitors will be the Metropolitans five from Baltimore. This team has the honor of being the runner-up in the National Bowling Association tourney last year, and the invaders from Orleto Land believe that they will have an easy time setting the pace for the rest of the team to follow.

President S. N. Williams, of the local association, opened the tourney, rolling the first ball down the alleys. He made a brief talk to the men assembled, telling what the tournament would be, and the local players believe that every detail had been attended to. The comfort and pleasure of all united in saying that the Marshallites were by far the fastest aggregation they had seen this year.

Woodin played a corking good game for his team, he being the only member of the visitors to get a good goal. It would be unfair to name any individual star on the Marshallites, as the whole team played stellar ball. "Big" Hatcher, however, has a remarkable record, caging the ball for nine goals before Coach Jones decided to give the second string men a chance. Hatcher and Woodie Woodward both played great ball, each having eight goals to his credit at the final whistle. The line work of the two guards, Captain Harkrove and Sheer, can be realized when it is said that three goals were thrown by their men during the game. Coach Jones sent the substitute five in soon after the second half began, and they continued the good work the varsity had begun. Fuller, Harkrove and Enig put up the best game among the "subs."

John Marshall has played twelve games this season, and has been named a winner in eleven of these. The only game they have lost this season went to the Newport News High School last Friday night. The game was played in Newport News, and Marshall won by a score of 37 to 32. The locals went to the seaside town without being fully prepared to take the trip, and are claiming that great credit for having eight goals to his credit at the final whistle. Coach Jones sent the substitute five in soon after the second half began, and they continued the good work the varsity had begun. Fuller, Harkrove and Enig put up the best game among the "subs."

John Marshall has played twelve games this season, and has been named a winner in eleven of these. The only game they have lost this season went to the Newport News High School last Friday night. The game was played in Newport News, and Marshall won by a score of 37 to 32. The locals went to the seaside town without being fully prepared to take the trip, and are claiming that great credit for having eight goals to his credit at the final whistle. The line work of the two guards, Captain Harkrove and Sheer, can be realized when it is said that three goals were thrown by their men during the game. Coach Jones sent the substitute five in soon after the second half began, and they continued the good work the varsity had begun. Fuller, Harkrove and Enig put up the best game among the "subs."

ASHLAND HIGHS AN EASY VICTORY

John Marshall's Quint Finds Little Resistance From Visitors—Locals Too Fast.

John Marshall's championship basketball team had little trouble in defeating the Ashland High School quint yesterday afternoon in the locals' gymnasium. The final score was 55 to 7 in favor of the Marshallites.

The visitors put up a good game, but were simply outclassed by the locals at every stage of the game. The game yesterday was the last that John Marshall plays in Richmond this season, and a large crowd of the locals' followers were on hand to give the team a royal send-off. This was the second time that the Ashland team had gone down to defeat this season, and they looked after the scores.

Woodin played a corking good game for his team, he being the only member of the visitors to get a good goal. It would be unfair to name any individual star on the Marshallites, as the whole team played stellar ball. "Big" Hatcher, however, has a remarkable record, caging the ball for nine goals before Coach Jones decided to give the second string men a chance. Hatcher and Woodie Woodward both played great ball, each having eight goals to his credit at the final whistle. The line work of the two guards, Captain Harkrove and She
